

VOICES & STORIES

Celebrating Diversity Through Musical Art

When Ray Joslin began playing the Dulcimer, he began a journey that has impacted his life in ways he couldn't conceive. Jazz artists Joshua Strange and Nathan Benedict candidly recall their experiences that led them to Jazz.

These local musicians and others will share their personal stories of diversity through musical art at this year's Voices & Stories program.

November 21, 2013
7 PM

Centerville High Central Theatre
500 E. Franklin Street

For more information, call 937-433-8091

