Centerville Arts Commission presents Symphonic Choir at the Hometown Holiday Walk November 19

The Centerville Arts Commission is sponsoring a performance by The Centerville High School Symphonic Choir on Sunday, November 19, 2017 at the Hometown Holiday Walk from 1-5 p.m. in Downtown Centerville. The Symphonic Choir is directed by Ben Spalding. Ben Spalding is the head Choral Director at Centerville High School. At Centerville, Ben directs all of the choirs and the a cappella group Forte.

Downtown Centerville welcomes the season with the Hometown Holiday Walk, 1–5 p.m. Sunday, November 19, 2017, sponsored by the Heart of Centerville merchants and Centerville-Washington History. Participants have the opportunity to win a gift basket valued at more than $1,000. Step back in time with visits to the Historical Society’s Asahel Wright House, School Museum and Walton House Museum. Other events include children’s activities, live nativity, animal attractions, horse and carriage rides, and visits with Santa, shopping, special discounts and food trucks.

Centerville’s Tree Lighting Ceremony follows at 5:30 p.m. at Benham’s Grove, 166 N. Main Street. Enjoy the sounds of the season with musical entertainment from the Cline Elementary School Chorus and the Centerville Community Band, dances from “Nutcracker” by the Miami Valley Dance Company, and a special appearance by Santa Claus. Centerville Mayor Brooks Compton will light the tree following Santa’s arrival. Both of these community events are free.

The Centerville Arts Commission was created by Centerville City Council to involve the citizens of the Centerville area in the visual and performing arts.
