Centerville Art Gallery features Derry Cox in September, Reception September 2

The Centerville Arts Commission is pleased to host a photography exhibit by Derry Cox in the Art Gallery at the Centerville Police Department for September. The Police Headquarters are located at 155 W. Spring Valley Road in Centerville. The Centerville Arts Commission will host a reception on Friday, September 2, 2016 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the Art Gallery to introduce the collection to the community. Derry Cox will be present to meet the public, and light refreshments will be served. The exhibit may be viewed anytime, day or night.

Derry Cox is a fine art photographer who works entirely with digital photography. Derry Cox creates fractal images with his photography. Fractals are the fusion of mathematics and art. Fractal images are characterized by intricate repeating of shapes and images. Mr. Cox also builds his own frames for his photographs.
